Visiting Lecturers Grants 2024

The Society of Spanish Researchers in Southern Africa (ACESDA) has the honour of announcing the results of the "Visiting Lecturers 2024" grants. The 6 recipients to stay at universities or research institutions in Southern Africa are:

Awardee	Institution of origin	Visiting institution	Country
José María de la Rosa	IRNAS-CSIC	University of the Free State	South Africa
Makrina Agaoglou	Universidad Politécnica de Madrid	University of Cape Town	South Africa
María Montoya	CIB-CSIC	National University of Science and Technology	Zimbabwe
Rafael Prados Rosales	Universidad Autónoma de Madrid (UAM)	Centro de Investigação em Saúde de Manhiça (CISM); y Eduardo Mondlane University	Mozambique
Santiago Aubourg	CSIC-Marine Research Institute	University of Antananarivo	Madagascar
Susana Guerra	Universidad Autónoma de Madrid	Universidade Mandume Ya Ndemufayo	Angola

The Visiting Lecturers Grants 2024 program is organized by ACE Sur de Africa, and it is sponsored by the Ramón Areces Foundation (frA) and the Spanish Embassies in Angola, Mozambique, South Africa and Zimbabwe. It is intended for six Faculty members of Universities or Research institutions located in Spain to complete a collaborative stay at universities or Research institutions in Southern Africa, so that applicants strengthen relationships with researchers of their specialty, develop teaching activities and transfer of knowledge in that country, and acquire professional experience that will ultimately help boosting their career.

Eligible countries included: Angola, Botswana, Comores, Eswatini, Lesotho, Madagascar, Malawi, Maldives, Mauritius, Mozambique, Namibia, Seychelles, South Africa, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

From the Society of Spanish Researchers in Southern Africa (ACESDA), we congratulate the awardees for this opportunity, and we hope that the upcoming experience contributes to their personal and professional growth.
